

... as "Todd" to the
... formerly of the A.
... with the Louisville
... teams meet there
... at the Northwestern park. Todd was captain of the A. B. C.'s holding down third base.

He was known for his steady, swift throwing. He was thought to be slow in "gathering" up the ball, but he made it up in his delivery, which was generally to first base.

Leonard Griffin, formerly of the A.
B. C.'s, and Louisville Cubs, who has been ill for some time, is improving.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, May 16, 1914, Page 7, Columns 1&2