BROOKLYN (N. Y.) ALL-STARS.

Engage the A. B. C.'s—A Five-game Series Played.

Saturday, July 4.

The Brooklyn saggregation of ball tossers blew in likst week and opened up an engagement with the local team, the A. B. C.'s. The Brooklyn fellows are top-notch lookers, sturdy, stocky, robust: Big Smith, the manager, and first baseman, is a regular glant. fact his avoirdupois is somewhat his way when traveling the bases. But he's like the famous old sexton when on duty-he gathers them in-all them. The bunch, too, has that fresh, youthful appearance, as if they well of nights. slept Cls have that broncho appears ance-hardened, seasoned, prepared to in go up against anything spite their rather medium size.

There is something in favor of big men. When they are good, they are good sure enough. They are generally good batters—vide Rube's team. The Cuban Giants, however, represent the other side, smaller men, and who show up best in the field.

The first game went to the A. B. C.'s A great crowd was present, who were chock full of enthusiasm. The New Yorkers were not without friends. Their good points were applicated, but all in vain. They went down before the local fellows to the tune of 7 to 6.

Brooklyn. Gordon, lf B. Williams, 3 Kindle. 2 Pannell, c Smith, 1 Meade, s	55 55 55 25 55	4 0 2 3 2 (O 3 4 0 1 7 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	A 0 1. 1 2 0 2 0	E 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0
Reese. rf B. Johnson, cf Pinto, p	5	3 1 0	3 0	0 2	0
A. B. C.'s. Brown, rf	AB	15 H 3 0	24 O 1 0	A 0	E 0 0
Shively, If J. Taylor, 3 B. Taylor, 1 Hutchinson, s	3 4	3 3 0	0 9 5	1	- 0-}
Scotland, cf O'Neil, c Powell, c Simpson, 2	3 2 3	0 0 0 0	2 9 0 1	$\begin{array}{c} 1 \\ 0 \\ 2 \end{array}$	0 1 2
D. Johnson, p S. Williams, p *C. Taylor	i.	0	0 0	3 3 0	0 0
*Batted for D. enth.					- 1
Innings pitched- liams, 2. Hits—O Williams, 4; off Pir By Johnson, 8; by balls—Off Johnson	ff Jol ito, 10. Pinto	hinso St), 3.	n, rucl Ba	ll; k ou ises nto	on on
Wild pitches—Pin O'Nell, 1. Hit by C. Taylor. Sacrifi Doubel play—Wi Stolen bases—Bro Taylor, B. Taylor	to, 2. pitcl ce h lljams wn 2	Pas it—. it—. t	ssed -By J. Shiv	Dai Pin Tayl Smi	to, or. th.
land. Gordon. K Johnson. Two-bas Kindle, J. Taylor. nell, S. Williams.	indle, le hi Hor	Pa ts(ne)	anne Gord runs	ell, lon — Pa	2, 1n-

Sunday, July 5.

The gladiators met to renew their contest on the following day. The visitors were in splended form, and perhaps smarting under the drubbing of the day before, were all cocked and primed. They went after the A. B.

Ch's in good fashion, beating them out by a score of 11 to 5. At no time did it look good for the home team.

Brooklyn ____0 1 2 2 0 2 4 0 0—11 8 1 A. B. C.s___2 0 0 0 0 3 0 0 0— 5 8 5

Innings pitched-S. Taylor, 4; liams, 5; Brown, 9. Hits-Off S. lor, 4; off Williams, 4; off Brown. Struck out—By S. Taylor, 2; by Williams, 3; by Brown, 1. Bases on balls -Off S. Taylor, 3; off Williams, 3; off 3. Wild pitch—Williams. Brown. Brown, 1. Hit by pitcher-By S. Taylor, Pannell; by Williams, Kindle; by Taylor. Sacrifice C: Brown. Meade, Brown 2. Passed balls-Pannell, 2; Powell, 1. Stolen bases-Shive-2, B. Taylor 2, Gordon, Kindle Taylor, Williams, Two-base hits-B. Reese. Three-base hit-Meade. Home runs—Pannell, Johnson.

Monday, July 6.

Owing to the clean cut victory of the New Yorkers Sunday, an unusual week day crowd got together on Monday to see the outcome of the third day of the contest. It was the A. B. C.'s turn to be aggressive, since they were so roughly handled the day before. Johnson for the A. B. C.'s, was in fine fettle, and he pitched so that all sat up and took notice. The Brooklyns are good hitters; they got in some good ones. But the fielders were keen, "Old 45" and the rest of them.

They "scoured" their territory in a most effectual way. The visitors were clearly outclassed, the A. B. C.'s playing superior ball. "Score:
Reposition AR H O A E

Brooklyn, AF	3. H O	\mathbf{A}	\mathbf{E}
Gordon, If4	1 0	1	Ü
Williams, 34	1 0	2	0
Kindle, 24	0.5.0	5	1
Pannell, c3	1 3	0	0
Smith, 1 3	1 10	1	. 0
Meader's 4	1 5	3	1
Reese, rf	$\overline{0} \cdot \overline{0}$	0	Õ
B. Johnson, cf 4	1 0	()	Ŏ
B. Brown, p 4	Ū Ū-	· 45	$\tilde{2}$

		- -

Totals	34	6.	24	17	4
A. B. C.'s.	AΒ	II	O	\mathbf{A}	·E
Shively, If	5	2	2		Ú
L. Brown, 2	3	0	3	6	0
J. Taylor, 3	·í	1	0	. 0	2
B. Taylor, 1	1	1	- 9	i	Ð
Moore, rf	4	0	2	U	0
Hutchinson, s	3	1	1	4	()
Scotland, of	3	0	2	0	0
Powell, c		1	8	0.	Ú
D. Johnson, pulling	3	1	0	1	Q
•		_4

Totals _____29 7 27 12 2

Struck out—By Johnson, 8; by Brown, 2. Bases on balls—Off Johnson, 2; off Brown, 7. Sacrifice hits—L. Brown, Scotland. Stolen bases—L. Brown, B. Taylor 2. Moore, Meade. Two-base hits—B. Taylor, Powell, D. Johnson. Three-basé hit—Gordan.

Tuesday, July 7.

Tuesday's 'engagement opened up, both sides having "slept on their arms over night." The New Yorkers went down again. The battle was hard fought and close. Both clubs fielded cleverly, Mealle and Brown doing good work. Simpson, for Bowser's club, held the Stars safe throughout the contest. Score:

A. B. C.'s.	AB	Ή.	O	\mathbf{A}	\mathbf{E}
Brown, 2	4	2.	::	3	0.
Shively, M	:	U	(+	Ü	()
J. Taylor, 3				0
B. Taylor, 1		2	13	2
Hutchinson, s		6,6	1.	5
Moore, rf	3	14	O	U
Scotland, of	3	` 2		0
O'Neil, callaga	3	1 :	6	1	Ú
Simpson, p	3	(i	Ú	4	: 0

Totals28	ĩ	27	15	Ü
Brooklyn, AB	Ħ	Ö	$\mathbf{A}^{'}$	\mathbf{E}
Gordon, If4	1)	3.	0	0
Smith, c	. 3	2	2	0
L. Williams, rf i	3	2	0	0
Pannell, 1 3	المريخ الم	\mathfrak{A}^0	0	0
Kindle, 2 4	1	1	2	I
Meade, Standard	1	3	5	()
H. Williams, 32 3	Ų	2	2	0
Johnson, ef 3	1.	2	Ų.	•
Reese, p 3	ľ	1	.5	ŗ

Totals _____33 10 24 14 1 Brooklyn ___1 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—2 10 1 A. B. C.s___0 0 2 1 0 0 0 0 0 —3 7 0

Struck out—By Simpson, 5; by Reese, 2. Bases on balls—Off Simpson, 1; off Reese, 3. Stolen base—Scotland. Double plays—Brown to B. Taylor; Kindle to Pannell. Two-base hit—Brown. Three-base hit—Meade. Home run—Smith.

WEDNESDAY, JULY S.

A batting rally in the ninth inning gave the A. B. C.'s Wednesday's game with the Brooklyn All-Stars, Bowser's club storing three runs and winning the contest, 6 to 5. With the bases full, B. Taylor clouted out a long one, clearing the sacks. Roth clubs hit the ball hard, eight of the hits going for extra bases. Score: A. B. C. Shively, If Brown, 2b AB. H. O. A. E. 2 $\mathbf{0}$ (t 5 J. Taplor, 3b ______ B. Taylor, 1b _____ Hutchinson, ss -----Moore, rf _____ Scotland, of _____ O'Niel, c _____ 0 Burch, p S. Williams _____ 1 , 0 ____34 12*26 Totals AB. H. .O A. E. Brooklyn. Gordon, 1f _____ 5. 1 3 1 Smith, 1b _____ 5 Reese, rf _____4 Pannell, c ----- 4. Kindle, 2b ----- 4. Meade, ss Williams, 3b Johnson, cf B. Brown, p 0 E. Brown, p ___38 10 27 18 One out when winning run scored. Brooklyn _____0 0 0 0 0 3 0 2 0-5 A. B. C.'s_____1 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 3—6 Innings pitched- B. Brown, 8 1-3; E. Brown, 1 1-3. Hits—Off B. Brown, 9: off E. rown, 3. Bases on balls—Off B. Brown, 6. Struck out-By Burch, 5. Stolen bases-Shively, J. Taylor, Reese, Double plays - Kindle Kindle. Hutchinson to Brown to B, Smith; Taylor; Kindle to Pannell to Smith. Two-base hits-J. Taylor, B. Taylor. Taylor, Burch, hits—B. Three-base Home runs-Smith, Scotland, Gordon. Meade.

Manager Taylor of the A. B. C.'s always shouts when something's doing on his side. He did considerable of it July 4th. He was in the dumps July 5th.

Mohawks of New York Next Sunday,

The visitors caught on to Steel Arm John right away, quick.

Sapho didn't get a look in the pitchers' box during the series.

Meade, the Brooklyn short stop, is a peach. No better, however, than Puggie of the local team. They play much alike. Either one would attract old Rube Foster's attention—that would be a compliment,

On Saturday occurred one of the most exciting games of the season. Both clubs fielded in brilliant manner, Brown for the locals, and Reese and Meade for the Alf-Stars, making sensational catches. With men on bases Johnson was invincible, fanning eight men. Pannell and S. Williams each clouted out home runs, Williams hit winning the game for the local club.

In Monday's game Powell came in for notice owing to his hard hitting. "Old 45" redeemed himself for his poor Sunday's business. Both of the Taylor's made a good showing at the bat.

In Sunday's game Williams, pitcher for home team, got poor support. The whole push was being routed by the visitors. This was when "Old 45" flunked. The Taylors, B. and J., went up in the air, and C. I. refused to shout.

Johnson's pitching was the decided feature of Saturday's game. He was cornered—three men on bases, none down. He had to "cut" his way out." He punched the bunch. It was something great. General Johnson, if you please.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, July 4, 1914, Page 4, Columns 3 to 5