

A batting rally in the ninth inning, that scored seven runs, turned defeat into victory for the Lincoln Stars against the Phillipsburg team of New Jersey at the Lenox Oval yesterday by a score of 10 to 9. "Smiling Smoke" Desmukes pitched a good game and only allowed seven hits, but rank fielding behind him enabled the visitors to score many runs.

Evening World, New York, NY

Monday, September 20, 1914, Page 10, Column 5