

A. B. C.'s GO DOWN BEFORE OWNIE BUSH'S ALL-STARS

Ownie Bush's All Stars defeated the A. B. C.'s last Sunday at League Park, 6 to 3, in a game. The largest crowd ever attended a local indoor game on hand.

George Dausse of the A. B. C.'s pitched for the team, but the colored champs saw him out first and fourth innings. The American League star also pitched. Williams started for the A. B. C.'s and pitched in good form until taken out in the eighth.

Bush's All Stars will play the A. B. C.'s again next Sunday. The champion batter of the American League, and White Sox's Hoosiers, will play the A. B. C.'s.
