

Saturday Afternoon.

Saturday's game was ended abruptly by a downpour of rain as the first inning was nearing an end. The opening trio of colored batters had gone down in 1, 2, 3 fashion, two were down on the Amboy side, but Shankey was on second following a double welt into center garden. It was a summer shower, which ended the entertainment and it caused the fans on hand to seek shelter under the cover of the spacious grandstand.

Indications were that the contest would be hummer, both Billy Pfau and Manager Ganley were confident of victory. Incidentally, the former probably saved a fiver, for the coons seemed to be there. Their fielding ability was of the classy sort that wins instant favor and they could hit.

Webster, catcher, the first Royal Giant up singled over the second baseman's head, but he died trying to steal second as Bradley was at bat. The latter grounded to Dummy Mulcay at third, who caught him at first on a close decision. Handy struck out. Clark, the Pacers crack new second base guardian, flew out into center garden. Ganley struck out. A first trial at bunting failed. A second strike resulted through the first class heaving of Andrews, and a final and determined effort to hit on the third chance proved futile. Shankey, the Pacer first baseman, waited for a good one and he lifted it far into center field and near the fence. While the sphere did not roll, it was good for two bases.

The teams batted in the following order:

Royal Giants.

Webster, c; Bradley, 1b; Handy, 2b; Thomas, cf; Clark, ss; Andrews, pitcher and lf; Bragg, 3b; Harvy, lf and p; Dismukee, rf.
