

HARVEY ALLOWS ONLY FIVE HITS

Brooklyn Royal Giants Have
Easy Picking With Camden,
Due to Southpaw's Hurling

Harvey, the crack southpaw of the Brooklyn Royal Giants, twirled a magnificent game at Camden yesterday, allowing but five hits, all singles, and fanning seventeen men, and blanked the Camden A. C. aggregation by a score of 6 to 0. Harvey had the Camden boys at his mercy throughout and so effective was his pitching that not one of his outfielders had a put-out and but one infielder, Bragg at third, was called upon to accept a grounder. The Giants gave a great exhibition on every hand and while they did not hit Bassett or Dilbeck very hard their work on the bases made up for this shortcoming, getting nine steals.
