Presenting their "best" line-up, which includes the star battery of Dismukes and Webster, the champion Royal Colored Giants will play an exhibition game against the Perth Amboy Pacers at Amusement Park tomorrow afternoon.

The Royal Giants are one of the most popular colored aggregations in the country and add ginger and fun to the game. Their antics on the coaching lines are popular with the bleacherites.

The Pacers believe they have unearthed a star catcher in Frank Hand, who is doing the bulk of the work behind the bat for the Pacers. Hand is young and has a lot to learn, but if he is worked steadily he will develop into the best catcher in the Atlantic League. Hand is a hard hitter and seldom fails to get a long drive in a game. He will catch tomorrow's game and his fast throwing to bases should stop the colored folks on the bases.

Sheaffer will start the game on the mound against the Royals. His fast curves ought to baffle the colored champions, but if he should go bad, Clifford will be put in the game. The latter is claimed to be a rattling good pitcher, but he has been unfortunate in his games in the league so far.

Randolph is pitching today's game for the Pacers in Poughkeepsie. "Randy" is the one best bet of the staff at present and he should have no trouble in winning from Poughkeepsie if the Pacers get two or three runs for him. "Randy" has beaten the "Bugs" twice before this season and the field at Poughkeepsie is an ideal spot for his speed. Randolph will also pitch one of the games next Tuesday or Wednesday in Perth Amboy against Middletown.
