

Brooklyn Royals vs. Victrix Today

Brooklyn Royal Giants will be the attraction at Victrix Park, Fifty-eighth street and Haverford avenue today when they take the field against the Victric Catholic Club. The anticipated shake up in the Victrix lineup has been made by Manager Johnny Weeks and in the places of the old players the following well-known stars will be seen. First base, Gulton, captain; second base, Campbell, of Cape May; third base, Robertson, late of the Canadian League; shortstop, Keefe, of Richmond; centre field, Joe O'Brien, back from the Tri-State; right field, Davis, formerly of Louisville, Southern League; Minnhan will remain in left field. The pitcher who will do the twirling for the locals is a well-known big leaguer, Barker of Trenton, will stop the unknown's shoots at the plate.
