

NEW YORK. June 23—The first night baseball game to be played in Harlem is looked for tomorrow night at Olympic Field, One Hundred and Thirty-Sixth Street and Fifth Avenue, where the Carlisle Indians and the Royal Giants will clash. The Indians have played night contests on Saturdays for the last two months in the larger cities of Pennsylvania and upper New York, and the novelty has proved a success. The Carlisle students carry 14 acetylene lamps with them to brighten the field.
