

MILLVILLE NEWS*SPORT COMMENT

The Chinese had a picnic with Pitman at Alcyon Park yesterday. They ran wild on the bases and converted the struggle into a farce by their terrific hitting.

Manager William Simmerman, of the Bridgeton team, was at Alcyon Park yesterday trying to induce the Chinese to come to Bridgeton next Wednesday. "Billy" doesn't have to go all the way to Pitman to get the big attraction. The Orientals will play anywhere, providing they are given the $100 guarantee, with a privilege of 60 per cent. of the gate receipts.

Williams, who has been touted as a better pitcher than Dilworth and who has been with the Bacharach Giants, is said to have gone with the Brooklyn Royal Giants.

There will be no Bridgeton-Millville games next week.

Tommy Steele seems to be developing into quite a twirler. His work in the Industrial League was noticeable, it being a big mystery to the batters in that organization, and now, with a fast fielding team behind him, he appears to be holding his end up in a highly encouraging manner.

Millville was altogether too reckless on the bases in yesterday's game at Bridgeton. By playing on the safe side, the score could no doubt have been boosted several notches. In the first inning the winners tallied two runs, and there were two more men on the bases and not anybody out. There was no further scoring, however.

A Millvillian attempted to go all the way home from second on a short hit to left in yesterday's game. Trego picked up the ball as the sprinter rounded third and easily pegged him out at the plate.

The other day the Philadelphia Professionals, the team that Millville trimmed so thoroughly, knocked Roberts, of the Bacharach Giants, out of the box. Dilworth replaced him and fanned the entire six men in the last two innings.

The Millville ball club has been playing just as good baseball away from home as on their own field, and if last Tuesday's game was any criterion, then the locals should not experience any difficulty with Vineland at Vineland next Tuesday.

Logan Square, the Philadelphia ball club that has been enjoying continued victory, will play in Millville Saturday afternoon, August 16.

An enthusiastic Vineland baseball fan declares that he wants to bet $500 that Vineland can beat Millville on a "mutual" field. The elevator boy took him up.
