

One of the various California winter leagues has closed its season with the negro team of "American Giants" winning the pennant over a lot of major leaguers. Rube Foster bossed the American Giants and kept them playing ball all the time. They won 18 games and lost seven.

The Chronicle News, Trinidad, CO

Friday, January 17, 1913, Page 3, Column 3