

COLORED TEAM BEATS GIANTS

Over in Seattle the colored lads simply slaughtered Tealey Raymond's bunch of athletes. Sunday they garnered twenty bingles when Mickle, one-time Tiger, essayed to pitch. Dug lost so many balls over the fence that he shed tears.

Pete Schneider managed to grab a homer of the colored slab artist the day he worked against them. But of course that's expected of Pete.

GOOD GAME IS EXPECTED FRIDAY

There is sure going to be some game Friday, boy. That's when the American Giants hook up with the Tigers. If the latter win, they'll have something to brag about, for it is so long since the negro team was walloped that we get a headache thinking about it.

Tacoma Times, Tacoma, WA

Tuesday, April 8, 1913, Page 2, Columns 2 & 3