

TIGERS AND GIANTS PLAY TODAY

By long odds the best game of the Tigers' training season takes place at the ball park this afternoon, when the American Giants, reputed to be the fastest colored team in the world, hook up with the Bengals. The Giants have cleaned up every team on the coast with the exception of the Vancouver Beavers. Concannon, who is said to have once won a victory over them, will pitch for the Tigers. In the game will be seen Petway, admitted by many the greatest catcher in the country, bar none.

The Stadium youths were walloped again yesterday by a 10 to 1 score in a game featured by Al Crane's pitching after he went in the box to relieve Espeland. McMullin got the first homer of the season.
