

The East Chicago club has booked the Chicago Union Giants (colored) for this Sunday, May 25, for the second time this season. After a week or two the Giants hit the road and travel all through the United States and they have asked for a return game, claiming that with the addition of a few new players they will offset the 6 to 3 defeat East Chicago gave them a few Sundays ago before the largest crowd that ever saw a ball game in East Chicago.
