

HOWARD'S TEAM PLAYS.

Meets Colored Semi-pro Team of Brooklyn on Campus Tomorrow.

On Howard campus tomorrow afternoon the noted Brooklyn Royal Giants, fresh from a successful tour of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, will meet the Howard University baseball team in what promises to be a good game.

The Royal Giants are the best of the colored semi-pros, and the Howard University team is the champion colored college nine, the latter having made a record last spring of fourteen games won and one lost on their annual trip through Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina.

The Washington Herald, Washington, DC

Tuesday, May 6, 1913, Page 10, Column 6