
ROYAL GIANTS TO PLAY HERE.

Crack Colored Base Ball Team Will Clash Tomorrow at Howard Field.

The Howard University base ball team will meet the well known Royal Giants tomorrow afternoon on Howard campus. The Howard team holds the championship of the colored colleges, by virtue of her wonderful record of last spring, when she played the colleges of Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina and lost only one game.

The Royal Giants of Brooklyn are the best of the colored semi-pros and are known throughout the country for their brilliant playing. Their pitching staff is composed of such stars as Redding, Wickware, Dismukes and Wade, and this quartet forms the strongest staff of its kind in the country. Redding, with twenty-five strike-outs in one game, holds the world's record. He also holds a 3-to-2 victory over the New York Giants, the champions of the National League. Wickware is also recognized as one of the best hurlers in the country. The receiving end will be well taken care of by the hard-hitting Booker and Webster.
