

PLAY BALL BY INJUNCTION

Mohawk Giants Get Right to Meet and Beat Troy.

Schenectady, N. Y., July 13.—Sheriff Myers, of Schenectady, was prevented from interfering with to-day's baseball game in this city because of an injunction served upon him yesterday noon by the manager of the Mohawk Giants, a local semi-professional team.

Although it was predicted otherwise, no arrests were made on warrants secured by agents of the Law and Order League, who might pay admission.

The game was an exhibition between the Troy State League club and the Mohawk Giants, and resulted in the latter team shutting out the leaguers by a score of 4 to 0.

The score by innings follows:

									R.	H.	E.
Mohawks	.....	1	0	0	0	2	1	0	x—4	11	4
Troy	.....	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	2

Batteries—Wickware and Smith; Pappalau and Giddo.
