

RIDGEWOOD'S BIG BILL.

Cuban Stars Will Clash With Long Branch Cubans Sunday.

The Cuban Stars of Havana and the Long Branch Cubans will clash in a double header this Sunday at Wallace's Ridgewood Grounds, Halsey street and Wyckoff avenue, Brooklyn. Although a number of players of both teams have opposed each other in winter games in Havana, Sunday's game will mark their first clash in this country.

The Long Branch Cubans have had quite a successful season as a travelling team, and their opponents, the Cuban Stars, can boast of even a better season. Splendid pitching in each case is responsible for the fine work of both. Ballestores and Munoz will be used by the Long Branch team, and Suarez will work on the mound in one game for the Stars. Ridgewood is preparing to harbor the entire Cuban population next Sunday.

The Sun, New York, NY

Monday, August 23, 1916, Page 13, Column 3