

Lincolns to Play the Royals.
Another game in the big semi-pro series now running in the American League Park on the Hilltop will be staged to-morrow, when the contesting teams will be Rod McMahon's fast Lincoln Giants and Connor's noted Royal Giants. The Lincolns were victorious in both parts of a double-header last Monday, beating the American Giants and the Cuban Stars, and say they will follow up those successes by taking the Royals into camp.

The Evening World, New York, NY

Friday, September 5, 1911, Page 13, Column 6