

SUNDAY BASEBALL GAMES.

The Lincoln Giants will play another double-header at Olympic Field. In the first game they will meet the Pottstown Club, while in the second they will have the Philadelphia Professionals for opponents. Joe Jeanette will umpire the second game.

The Suburbans will play the Elizabeth Stars at Suburban Oval, Sixteenth and Gravesend avenues, Brooklyn. Jack Sibley and Bill Toomey will be in the points for the Suburbans.

The Paterson Club, with Twirler Schwab on the firing line, will tackle the hard hitting Dexters at Dexter Park, Jamaica avenue and Drew streets, Brooklyn. Hank Mathewson will twirl for the Dexters.

The Easton Club, one of the strongest teams in Pennsylvania, will play the Havana Red Sox in the opening game at Lenox Oval. The winner of this game will play the Metropolitanans in the second tussle.

Knockout Brown, who has already had experience at umpiring ball games, will render the base decisions in the game between the Utica team and the New York Colored Giants at Saratoga Park, Broadway and Halsey street, Brooklyn. The Utica team has not lost a game so far this season.
