

SUNDAY BASEBALL GAMES.

The Lincoln Giants, the strong colored team, will take part in another double header at Olympic Field. They will meet the Central Islip nine in the first game and the strong New London Club in the second tussle. The latter team made the Lincoln Giants play their hardest to beat them in a previous game.

Andy Coakley's Patersons will appear at Bronx Oval for a game with the noted Bronx Athletics. Andy himself will be on the firing line for the Jersey men and will be opposed by Wilson of the Athletics.

At Dexter Park the Hanover F. C. will cross bats with the Havana Red Sox. This will be the first Sunday appearance of the famous Glendale team away from home in three years, during which period they suffered only three defeats.

Tom Durkin's McNulty team, managed by Eddie Doyle, will lock horns with the New York Fire Department team to-morrow at McNulty Field, One Hundred and Forty-ninth street and Eighth avenue. A feature of the afternoon will be a game between the Nyacks and West Harlems.

The Metropolitans will have to go at top speed when they meet the crack Pittsfield club at Lenox Oval, One Hundred and Forty fifth street and Lenox avenue, to-morrow afternoon. The Pittsfield team will have either Hesterfer or Pfanmiller in the box. Schacht will pitch for the Mets. In the preliminary game the St. Charles and Lady of Lourdes clubs will clash.

The Evening World, New York, NY

Saturday, July 15, 1911, Page 7, Column 2