The big Bloomfield B. B. C. will stack up against the crack Pittsburg Colored Giants at Williamson Oval tomorrow afternoon. This club was defeated by the Bloomers by a 1 to 0 score recently, the winning run being a homer by Burdette. Hanily will work for the home team, while it is likely that the Great Poke Green will oppose him.

ROYAL GIANTS WIN.

First of a series of three to decide the negro baseball championship of the country, the game between the Royal Giants and the Lincoln Giants at American League Park, New York, yesterday afternoon resulted in a victory for the Royals by a score of 12 to 3. The outcome of the contest was contrary to expectations, as the Lincolns entered two-to-one favorites.
