
Good Games for Union Park.

To-day the Washington Giants leave for Baltimore, where they play a double-header with the original Baltimore-Weldon Giants. The same two teams play here Sunday.

Mr. Mockabee, manager of the Union League Park, has turned over the booking of games to R. H. Jones, who is booking some of the best semi-pro. teams in the country, among which are the Philadelphia Giants, Royal Giants, Cuban Giants,, Nebraska Indians, &c.

The Washington Herald, Washington, DC

Friday, June 30, 1911, Page 7, Column 3