OLD SETTLERS AND ARMY VET-ERANS JOIN IN A CELEBRA-TION THAT BRINGS OUT
MANY PEOPLE.

Oacoma, S. D.—The old settlers and old soldiers' reunion was held in this city. It was well attended both days. The Emery and Tennessee negro bands furnished the music, while the street attractions were numerous. In fact, the city evidenced the gala day decorations. Saturday afternoon the old settlers met in the courthouse, where a programme was given. Attorney I. N. Auld gave the address of welcome, to which Rev. C. A. Miller responded. Commander N. G. Reed conducted a series of campfire tales from among the old comrades, which proved most interesting.

The leading features of the event were the baseball games, four teams being represented, namely, Murdo, Plankinton, Flandreau Indians and Tennessee Rats (colored). Friday afternoon Plankinton beat Murdo 19 to 1. The Flandreau Indians and Tennessee Rats played a score of 5 to 3. Saturday morning the Tennessee Rats and Murdo, 11 to 2. In the afternoon the championship game was won by Plankinton over the Flan-
