Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 14, 1919.— The Pasadena Merchants out-played the Los Angeles White Sox in a one sided game here last Sunday. Woods the much tutered slatman of the L. A. bunch made a good beginning but the merchants found little difficulty in getting into connection with his slow balls and knocked him out of the box in 4th. The Pasadena crowd bagged eleven runs before his funeral. — While the hurlers of the Pasadenas handed out only a stingy couple to the Engle aggregation. Washington, who replaced Woods, was able to stop the drives of the Pasadena team but his team matters never moved sufficiently to cut down the lead of the Local team. The Merchants manager taking no chances relieved Mr. Kirk in the 5th and substituted Ross who remained Thermont in session.

Mr. Mullen a Chicago boy held down his old position on the third sack for the home team. Fisher of the Vernon Club assisted greatly at first. New Kirk and Hannah, old battery of the Vernon and Daniels of the American Association were in the line up for the L. A.

Hawkins proved he is still master of third base. Manager Gaw played first in Frank Chance style.

JOHNSON LOOKS THEM OVER.

Owner Johnson was out looking over the weak spots in the White Sox's and made a statement that he expects to strengthen his line up in the near future. Johnson also has his eyes open for a site to erect a home park for the White Sox.
