Standing of the clubs Friday morning, July 23.

Before the game, the crowd was entertained by the Eighth Regiment and its band in honor of Col. Duncan.

The stands and boxes were draped with American flags. It was a fitting tribute to a good soldier.

The first three men for Joliet went out in one, two, three order. It was evident to the large mob that the Giants were not going to have a walk away.

It was a pitcher's battle all the way to the fifth inning, when a pass, a hit and some fast base-running scored the first run.

Williams was at his best with men on bases, catching five men off the bag in the course of the game.

After that, the Prisoners refused to get more than six inches away from the base.

Ryan pitched a much better game than the score indicates, but poor base-running on the part of his mates and their inability to hit when hits meant runs, makes the box-score look bad.

With a decent club behind him he will be a hard man to beat.

Just before the call, "play ball," the Giants marched around the field under the American flag, led by the greatest baseball manager in the world, Rube Foster. The crowd simply went wild.

The Fosters will be on the road next week. Joe Green's Chicago Giants and the Logan Squares will be the attraction.

GIANTS SWAMP JOLIET

Tom Williams Nips the Visitors' Rally in the Bud When He Traps a Whole Quartette of Runners Off Base.

Williams and Ryan staged an impressive pitchers' battle here last Sunday and honors were just about even as far as the hurling part of the fray went, but when our Tom threw his foxiness on the slab into the fracas he forged far enough to the fore to prevent a single Prison City lad crossing the threshold of scoredom. Perhaps the largest crowd that has ever assembled to do honor to our loyal soldiers and at the same time witness an exhibition of the grandest outdoor sport on earth viewed the humiliation of the Joliet players, but the plucky battle that the down state crew waged annexed the admiration of the most biased Chicago fan, and when they come again they will receive a hearty welcome. However, things just wouldn't break for the visitors. Aside from runners being trapped off base, the ground rules, as a result of the large crowd, broke against them and much to the advantage of the home team. Wild throws, fumbles and muffed throws weighed heavy against the Jolietts, the latter defection swaying a close decision or two to the gain of the Giants to such an extent that the league displayed glaring signs of quitters. The umpires had a tough day, mostly over the wrong interpretation of rules and the high tension under which players and fans were existing, but all things considered the Giants gained a clean cut victory over the prison gang. Williams let them down in one, two, three order for seven innings. Of the five hits, they were scattered over four rounds, the second yielding two blows. Ryan never allowed the Giants but one hit to an inning, and of the five, which the home boys required, all came in regular order after the third — one per inning. The showing of the Jolietts entitles them to another whack at the south siders and they may get it. The score:

STARS SHUT OUT ALCONA, 5-0

Gatewood Hands Blanking to Local Nine; Coveleski Loses.

Detroit, Mich., July 29.—Detroit Stars, with Gatewood on the mound, shut out the Alcona club at Mack park, Sunday afternoon, 5 to 0. The state champions bunched their hits off Coveleski to win.

Both teams fielded exceptionally well. Wesley and Eggleton doubled in the second inning and both scored on Riggin's triple. The latter accounted for two more runs in the sixth with a double.

Gatewood struck out nine batters, while the work of Rabideau for the losers, was a feature.

The Stars will meet with the strongest opposition of the year here next Sunday when the Bochrach Giants, from the east, will invade Detroit. Score:

BACCARACH GIANTS COMING

The Bacharach Giants, considered the foremost baseball team in the East, is headed for the West. They are led by Dick "Cannon Ball" Redding, unquestionably the speediest throwing pitcher who ever graced a slab. The team will inaugurate their invasion of the western circuit when they hook up with the strong Detroit Stars at the Michigan metropolis, Saturday, July 31st. They will tug it out there for a week, then they pull up stakes for an invasion of Chicago, tackling the American Giants at Schorling Park, Sunday, August 8th. The Foster crowd are on a trip over the far west end of the circuit, but will get home in time to do an exhibition game at Gary, Ind., Saturday, August 7th, the big team from the East being on the other end of the show.

The Easterners play a series of five against the local champs, so the monotony of constant winning that has been wished off upon the fans in the Windy City, as a result of the American's superiority over all comers, should undergo a change.

The eastern team has an array of diamond talent which should give them a rating with the best, for no better pitchers exist than Redding, "String Beans" Williams, Treadwell and others of the staff.

Lundy, the greatest short-stop who ever intercepted a batted ball, is with this team. Rojo, the great Cuban, is another one of those who glitter behind the bat, together with Marselles, the flashiest third sacker in the game. The redoubtable form of the Chicago team, no doubt, will be well spent in the fierce battles at Kansas City, and if the easterners have a leg to support them when the Detroiters are off of them, then the chesty Foster crew may be due for a tumble from the lofty domicile of superiority.

While the Fosterites are away, the fans will be kept on edge by an exhibition of the prowess of the Chicago Giants and the Rogers Park, the team that won two over the American Giants, that is carded for August 1st, at Schorling Park.

The Cubans go to Cincinnati, Ohio, where at the National league park they tackle a big semi-pro team July 31st and August 1st, and hold over for four games at the same place with the A. B. C.'s, August 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th.
