

Before a goodly crowd of fish who were unable to get a peep at Babe Ruth, Joe Green's Chicago Giants and Rogers Park fought a hard battle, Rogers Park having the break in their favor, and getting away with a 2 to 1 win.

The Giants' defeat was due to their poor judgment on bases.

They had good opportunities to score in both the seventh and the eighth innings.

With men on first and second in the eighth, Luther hit a long drive to left field; a woman could have scored from second on the hit, but Duncan, who was coaching at third base, refused to send the runner on but held him with both hands while Fenton was juggling the ball.

Luther pitched a wonderful game of ball and should have won his game; besides, he got two of the five hits gathered by the Giants, and struck out nine men.

Joe Green was as comical as ever on the coaching line. He keeps the fans in an uproar with his witty remarks. Walter Ball was all dressed up in a red sweater and uniform like a baseball manager. He is the best cabaret manager in the business.

It looked as if the Giants would tie up the score in the ninth with a man on third and one out. A pinch hitter was put in and he never hit a foul. Duncan, who used to line 'em out of the park when he was with Rube, was the next up. He took a swing at the ball, which was far on the inside. He protested to the umpire that he was trying to get out of the way of the ball, so he was given another chance at the next ball, which he missed a mile.

Next Sunday the Darlings and the Bacharach Giants.

ROGERS PARK DOWNS CHICAGO GIANTS

Rogers Park put the Chicago Giants under the X-ray Sunday at Schorling Park and profited by the weak spots discovered to the extent of 2 to 1. It ought to have been soft for the Giants the way Luther was pitching. He struck out nine of the hard hitting North Siders.

Joe Green has the find of the season in Frank Duncan, the kid catcher. He is an exact counterpart of Petway and has an arm like a veteran.

Lafferty only set down five Giants. Gorman opened the first inning with a single to center. Fenton sacrificed to second. Nolan hit down third base line and was thrown out by way of third to first, Gorman taking third on the play. Beckwith threw wild to third and Gorman scored. Warden struck out, ending the inning.

In the third inning Erickson smashed a two-bagger to left field. Lafferty was out, third to first. Gorman fanned. Fenton walked. Nolan hit a single to center, scoring Erickson. Warden was out second to first.

The Giants registered their first hit of the game in the sixth inning, as follows: F. Duncan was thrown out, short to first. Luther hit a two-base wallop to left field. W. Green struck out. Winston went out on a foul fly along the third base line.

The Giants scored their only run in the eighth inning, when F. Duncan beat out a hit to short and stole second. Luther then hit to left field. F. Duncan was thrown out at third. Green reached first on an error by Weisner. Green stole second and made third on an error by Erickson. Winston hit to second, scoring Green. F. Duncan, the veteran, was thrown out third to first. RUBE'S CREW FLAYS MONARCHS

Ten Thousand See Home Team
Humiliated After Holding Five Run Lead For Half the Game

(By Dave Wyatt.)

Kansas City, Mo.—The first day's play at the far west city was an eventful one from many points of view; in the first inning, for Chicago, Torrenti smashed out a slashing triple with two on and set the large crowd dippy; in the Monarch's half of the same inning, McNair duplicated the feat of our center gardener; then Grant and Donaldson staged a first fight in which many cops, ball players and fans nearly played an interesting part. The affair amounted to Grant putting the big southpaw to the ground and then both were banished from the game. The Monarchs looked to have the game all sewed up; in fact, they did have it all stacked away with a comfortable lead of 7 to 2, which prevailed until the eighth; then things began to eventuate. Six hits, a few mistakes, a stolen base or so put the Windy City boys up to even terms, and they took the fray in the ninth after outgaming the westerners causing the latter to display the unmistakable signs of quits. Johnson worked for the Chicago crew and Currie shot for the home gang. The Chicagoans are right on edge for the toughest gruelling extant, and before the present series is finished there is going to be some gore spilled and the Foster fighters look to be on the heavy end of the offensive. Second Game

Monarchs Won in 12 Innings

A Crowd of 15,000 Saw Giants Defeated in 5 to 4 Game

Before a crowd of 15,000, the largest gathering at Association Park this season, the Kansas City Monarchs evened up the series with "Rube" Foster's Chicago American Giants yesterday, copping a 12-inning melee, 5 to 4.

In addition to hurling a splendid game, Wilbur Rogan, the Monarch hurling ace, won his own game in the final frame with a double, scoring Donaldson with the winning run. Tom Williams, Chicago hurler, who had not lost a game previous to the second tilt with the Monarchs hurled a splendid game for the Chicago gang, allowing the Monarchs eleven hits, while his mates collected a dozen off Rogan's benders, but the Kansas City flinger kept the base knocks well scattered and retired thirteen opposing batters via the strike-out route.

With two down in the ninth, and the game apparently lost, the Chicago club staged a rally and succeeded in tying the count, a trio of healthy blows doing the work. In the twelfth inning Moore was wounded. Donaldson forced him and scored when Rogan followed with a double. A wild demonstration followed, the Monarch heaver being carried from the field on the shoulders of many admirers.

In the third game of the series this afternoon Bron likely will do the flinging for the Giants, while Crawford or Donaldson will be on the mound for the Monarchs. The score by innings:

A MATCH FOR BABE RUTH

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 4.—Base ball magnets have been trying to find some way to find a nemesis foe for Babe Ruth, the champion of champions among the sluggers. It is said if he is not stopped from losing balls by knocking them into oblivion they wont have enough with which to finish the season's games. Yet they cannot afford to take such a drawing card as Babe out of the national game, else the gate receipts will fade into infinite nothingness.

According to the Associated Press, a colored southpaw, a member of the Montgomery Grey Sox, a local colored team, would prove Babe Ruth's master. Streeter is the name of this king pitcher. In a recent game played with some of the greatest batters in the Southern League this giant struck out 27 men in succession. He did not allow a single man to knock a foul ball. It is said that he has more curve and better control than any other man who has tossed a ball.
