

BIG GAME SUNDAY

By DAVE WYATT

The fans of Schorling Park are in for a rare treat Sunday when the Chicago Giants go to bat with the strong industrial league team from Racine, Wis. Following in the footsteps of many of the big automobile and other industrial corporations, the Case Co. has put out a baseball team composed entirely of former big league statellites, and they have been tabbing a world of success this season, having played quite a few big league teams and coming out with flying colors. The leaguers will meet a formidable foe in the Chicago Giants as at resent constituted, for Green's recent acquisition of classy material to his roster gives the local pastimers a first class look in with the best in the land. Luther, considered the class of pitchers who heave from the south side of their anatomy will display his wares and the fans will be given a grand opportunity to give the up and down to the work of the south paw who created such a sensation down East this and last season. Beckwith, the lad whom the fans alround the circuit consider the heaviest clotter in captivity, is in grand form and his last show evinced evidence that he will annex the favor of the south side fans as being a whit ahead of all our famous bat swingers, that is, as far as the long distance clotting goes.

The twelve inning play of the Giants against one of the strongest teams in the Chicago league should serve as a foreword as to what the order of the day will be when the Green bunch toe the scratch with the all-leaguer aggregation. There will be no other baseball game on the south side, so the advance reservation has assumed gigantic proportions, the followers of the Racine team coming in for huge blocks. The game is called at three o'clock and that should afford all ample time for comfortable accommodations.

STARS CLEAN UP MISSOURIANS

DETROIT, MICH. Sept. 29.—Detroit Stars made a clean sweep of the

COLORED CANADIAN TEAM RETURNS

The great aggregation of colored ball players who played out the franchise at Winnipeg, Canada, this season are back in the states and will finish the season in and around Chicago. The team will play this Sunday at Appleton, Wis., and the roster looms up as a formidable foe for anything pastiming around this section. The club is headed by Sam Gordon, a veteran player and manager and he brings a string of conquests annexed through British Columbia, the North West part of the States and Canadian provinces that ring much like a big time performer. Singer, the crack college athlete from Zanesville, O., stood the north country populace on their heads with his flashy work the past season. Ewing, the youthful catcher whom Rube Foster grabbed from the Massilon, O., club last spring, received, pegged and slammed the horse hide with dire effect while Reed, pitcher Scotty, Pate and other important cogs in the machine, functioned up to a degree of perfection that was highly satisfactory to the Canadian backers of the team. Gordon is a product of Corroopolis, Pa., and underwent the baptism of fire overseas as a Lieut. with the famous 370th Infantry. He and Bob Gilkerson were brought on to the west about twelve years ago and both have been highly successful as players and managers. Gordon will operate a club in Canada in 1921 and is planning a scouting trip through Penn., Va., and Fla., where it is said many diamonds in the rough await the polishing process. The Winnipeg Giants, as they are dubbed done sixty games, winning forty-five and loosing fifteen. They covered the entire northwest, going as far as Vancouver, B. C. Twilight ball was the fashion and overflow crowds the rule. The players are boosting the Canadian country as a fertile spot for the activities of the colored fellow in baseball, so no doubt exists over the class of the gang that Gordon will cart up there for next seasons show.

KNOXVILLE NO MATCH FOR CHICAGO

BIRMINGHAM, ALA. Sept. 29.—Rube Foster's Giants had little trouble in romping away with a 7 to 2 victory Thursday last.

Maddox, the one-armed marvel, again stood out as the bright shining star for the Southern champs, rapping out a terrific triple to deep left in the sixth and scoring on the catcher's error. Maddox got two hits out of four trips and made two pretty catches in center.

Erratic throwing, especially by the catchers, marred the game. Knoxville made six hits off Dave Brown while the Foster outfit slammed out 12 off Force.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Sept. 28.—Foster's Chicago Giants scored a second successive victory over the Knoxville Giants, colored champions of the South, out at Rickwood Field, in a contest that was filled with errors by the Tennessee aggregation. The Windy City outfit and outplayed their adversaries at every stage of the game and had the Knoxville club shut out until the final inning, when three hits coupled with an inexcusable miscue gave them three tallies.

Lennie Williams was opposed on the mound by Tom Williams, and the latter had his Southern opponent bested in keeping his bingles scattered with men on the cushions, besides Tom was very effective with the willow and was instrumental in driving in two of the runs which aided his victory.

Undoubtedly, the outstanding feature of the contest was the work of Maddox, the one-armed outfielder of the Knoxville club. Maddox accepted several difficult chances and handled himself as well as any of his teammates.
