

The Red Rocks and New Orleans played at New Orleans Sunday.

Franklin, Va., has a snappy playing team. It has not lost one in eleven games.

Once upon a time, just twenty years ago, Louisville lost twenty-six consecutive games.

The Indianapolis club is at the top of the list at this writing. Now at the top floor, but for how long?

The Keystones, of Minneapolis, Minn., played the Hibbing (Minn.) club Saturday and Sunday, June 5 and 6, at League Park, winning the first game by the score of 2 to 1, and losing the second game by the score of 3 to 2. The Keystones have a very strong team this season, with such well-known stars as Campbell and Green, catchers; Jessup, Jackson and Sanford, pitchers; Rose, first base; Shafer, second base; Davis, shortstop; McCune, thrid base; Barton, left field; Hopkins, center field, and Willis Jones, right field. Under the watchful eye of Captain Willis Jones they are playing fast and snappy ball, and showing some very clever team work. They play the
