
WEATHER COLD, GAME CALLED OFF

It was too cold to play baseball yesterday. Wilmington Athletics and the Philadelphia Giants were scheduled to play a second game at South Side and at the opening hour there were several hundred fans within the park.

The sudden change in the weather, however, caused manager Stirlith to cancel the game. The Giants went to Allentown to play two games. Wilmington will play Chester here tomorrow.

The Sixth Ward line-up for the game will be: Miles, c; Beck and Kane, p; Yates, 1b; Connolly, 2b; Cumming, ss; Coleman, 3b; Shaer, lf; Wheatley, cf, and Mitchell, rf.
