

PHILADELPHIA GIANTS TO-DAY.

Washington Colored Professionals Play Quakers.

The Philadelphia Giants, one of the strongest teams in the colored professional association, will meet the Washington Giants to-day at Union League Park.

These two teams will play a series of three games, the Philadelphians having just finished a series with the Baltimore Giants, beating them 10 to 3 and 7 to 0.

The Washington Giants are aware of what they are going up against and are full of confidence, believing that they will get at least one game out of the three.

Manager Jones will personally look after his line-up and will use his two southpaws in the first two games. The prices have been cut to 15 cents and 25 cents, and the games will be called at 5 o'clock sharp.
