

MANHATTANS IN TIE GAME.

Darkness stopped hostilities in the eleventh inning at Manhattan Field yesterday, with the score a tie, 3 to 3. Coakley, who was on the mound for the Manhattans against the Philadelphia Giants, was in good form, striking out thirteen men, allowing nine hits and giving no passes. The Giants had an opportunity to sew up the game in the tenth inning, with men on second and third, but Coakley was equal to the emergency and fanned the batter, retiring the side.

The score follows:

R. H. E.

Phila. Giants	...	0	0	0	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	9	3
Manhattans	0	0	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	14	0

Batteries—Fisher and Petway; Coakley and Lamar. Umpire—Meyers.

New York Tribune, New York, NY

Monday, July 19, 1909, Page 8, Column 5