NOTES OF THE GAME.

Collins put up his usual good game at first.

That running catch of Briscoe's was a beauty.

Watson played a nice game at third and accepted three chances.

The Freeman is on sale at 1113 West Walnut street. Jessie Palmer, agent.

The ghost walks regularly for the boys and everybody's happy.

Wallace seems to have struck his gate at second. That's right, old boy, keep in the game.

Robinson and Martin had little to do but take care of everything that came their way.

Captain Booker had his eye on the ball Sunday. Four times up; four hits. Guess that's going some!

Manager Stringer says that games is all he wants, and with the good feeling and harmony that exists among the players, his wants will be gratified.

West pitched a splendid game, holding the Royals down to five hits. Struck out six and when men were on bases would tighten up, and the batters were hopeless before his curves.

Mitchel caught a great game Sunday and his throwing to bases was perfect. Do you know that no one has stolen a base on Mitchel in two games. Eight have tried to steal second and all have been found guilty.
