

BASE BALL NOTES

A case of cold feet was in evidence last Sunday when Austin called off the game which was to have been played between that team and Kenyon. The most objectionable part of it was that their management did not let the locals know until the eleventh hour.

Kenyon was well prepared for them and its a cinch they would have had practically a walk away.

Next Sunday Kenyon plays Owatonna at Owatonna. This game will surely be played providing the weather permits.

Kenyon has a find in Booker their new colored wonder. He has been a member of the twirling staff of two of the best colored teams in the world, the Leland Giants of Chicago and the Colored Gophers of St. Paul. He has a brother who is at present playing on the Colored Keystone team of Minneapolis. Booker twirled the Rochester game and with any luck at all should have won easily. He held that hard hitting team to two hits. This is a better feat than any pitcher who has faced that organization this year has accomplished.

Next Sunday Kenyon will have some new faces in their lineup. Freidheim who has been playing star ball for them and Harter have been released. To replace these men the manager has secured three of the best players of the Z & F Brewing Co team of Red Wing. Edquist who has been playing a star game at first for them will play that position for Kenyon in Mohns absence. Collins will play short and Thompson the outfield. These men are all good ball players and will make the best of them hustle.

Of all of the farcial contests ever played on Rehnke Athletic field that of last Sunday was the worst.

The Kenyon Juniors touted to be the wonders of this section of the country lost to a team from Wauamingo, by a score of 21 to 7.

The farmers played rings around them and made the Juniors appear like a team just let lose from a kindergarden.

The second game they defeated a team from Moland by a score of 12 to 9. This was almost as bad as the first and were a person to tell of the errors etc. made in those two games he would have to take a day off.

Now comes the news that they have secured three of the Wanamingo players to strengthen their team. This sounds better for such as last Sundays was highway robbery.
