

C. C. Cleveland, Joseph Taylor, and Albert Wright were in Faribault last Monday to see the colored gophers play the Faribault baseball team. The game come out in a quarrel, the score standing three to three. The quarrel was over the decision of the umpire. The Gophers quit after starting to play the eighth inning.

People's Press, Owatonna, MN

Friday Morning, June 4, 1909, Page 6, Columns 1 and 2