

GOOD HOLDS BROOKLYN ROYALS DOWN AND NATIVITY WINS

Another new pitching "ace" was uncovered in last night's twilight game at Nativity Field. Pitching against the Brooklyn Royal Giants, "Joe" Good, the latest addition to Phil Haggerty's twirling staff, allowed only 27 men to face him in the nine innings, 4 hits being made off his delivery, Nativity winning by 4 to 0.

NATIVITY C. C.					BROOKLYN R. G.
	r.	b.	a.	e.		r.	b.	a.	e.
Eberts, 2b...	1	2	4	0	I. M'c., 3b	0	0	2	1
J. Miller, lf...	1	0	3	0	Scott, lf	0	1	0	0
Robinson, cf	0	0	4	0	D'glass, lb	0	0	0	0
Nolan, 1b...	1	1	1	0	Lloyd, ss	0	2	1	3
Pagett, 2b...	1	2	0	4	Brooks, 2b	0	0	1	1
Castor, rf...	0	1	1	0	G'wood, c	0	0	1	0
Meisler, 3b...	0	0	0	3	Fall, cf	0	1	1	0
Barker, c...	0	2	4	0	Green, rf	0	0	0	0
Good, p.....	0	0	0	0	Roberts, p	0	0	0	1
					H'bard, p	0	0	0	3
Totals	4	5	27	12	Totals	0	4	21	8
Brooklyn R. G.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Nativity C. C.	4	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1

Philadelphia Inquirer, Philadelphia, PA

Wednesday Morning, June 16, 1920, Page 18, Column 4