

The Tate Stars continued their losing streak at Chagrin Falls, last Sunday, when they lost to the Henry Foundry men, 3 to 0. "Bobby" Sitts was in mid-summer form and refused to allow the colored lads to become familiar with his curves. Lefty Brady also pitched a cracker-jack game, but several errors and opportune hits allowed the Furnace men to score three runs.

Cleveland Gazette, Cleveland, OH

Saturday, August 21, 1920