

But Massillon has its baseball, with the Central Steels stacking up against the Dayton Marcos, strongest colored team in the country. The dusky lads are in the west end town today for a two-day stand this afternoon and Sunday. Gene Packard is to be on the firing line for Massillon today, with Ed Munroe twirling the Sunday battle.

The Evening Repository, Canton, OH

Saturday, June 26, 1920, Page 3, Column 2