

ST. LOUIS TEAM HERE SATURDAY

Next opponents for the Detroit Stars on their home lot, Mack Park, will be the St. Louis Giants, who come here to start series of five games, Saturday.

The Mound City colored aggregation has been setting a very fast pace this season, the Detroit Stars and American Giants being the only teams to win series from them, the locals capturing the set of games played there recently on their road trip.

St. Louis boasts a fine pitching staff with Drake, Finner and Carr. The team also boasts some real fielders with Blackwell, another player of the Jimmy Lyons type, and Dudley, who ranks a close second in ability.

Detroit Stars returned home early this week after splitting even with the American Giants in the Chicago series and Thursday will meet the Albion Red Sox at Albion, going from there to Chatham for a game Friday.

ST. LOUIS GIANTS OPEN SERIES HERE

Play Detroit Stars at Mack Park Saturday.

Detroit Stars and St. Louis Giants will hook up in the first of their five-game series at Mack Park Saturday afternoon, star hurlers of their respective staffs being nominated for mound duty.

Drake, for St. Louis, and Gatewood for Detroit will work. These same moundsmen figured in a fine pitchers' duel at St. Louis recently.

The visitors boast some real stars. Their outfield is rated the pick of the National Colored baseball circuit, with Blackwell, Dudley and Brooks, all fast fielders and good hitters. The kid shortstop, Holt, is a wonder, and Wallace, Bennett and McAdoo all are real pastimers at their various positions.

This team has won series from all other clubs in the league except Detroit and American Giants, and they rank one-two in the league. Sunday's game starts at 3 p. m.

With one exception each of the Stars broke into the hit column, Warfield and Harper being chief offenders. Riggins got a double and a triple.

Johnson, for the locals, held the visitors to five scattered hits. Kennard's circuit drive with one on accounting for two of the visitors' tallies. The third came in the ninth on a two-bagger, an out and a sacrifice fly. Harper and Riggins did some clever fielding.

The same teams play Sunday.
