

K. C. MONARCHS DOWN A. B. C.'s IN HEART-RENDERING CONTEST

Before a crowd of faithful fans that filled the stands at Washington Park, the Kansas City Monarchs with the scalps of the St. Paul Giants dangling at their belts proceeded to win the big game last Sunday from our heroes in a ten-inning struggle, 5 to 4. Sensational fielding by the Monarchs kept the A.'s wrecking crew from routing the enemy's twirlers.

Some were inclined to criticize Manager Taylor for sending Brother Ben to his death at the plate on an infield hit, but that is the game and we are inclined to think that C. L. knows exactly what he is doing. Third Baseman Day after making a fancy stop in the tenth threw wild to first, allowing the winning run to score.

The box score follows:

A. B. C.	AB.	H.	O.	A.
Shively, lf. -----	4	0	0	0
Clark, ss. -----	5	2	2	2
Charleston, cf. -----	4	0	3	0
Taylor, 1b. -----	3	2	1	2
Powell, c. -----	4	1	3	1
DeWitt, 2b. -----	4	2	5	4
Day, 3d. -----	4	0	1	1
Jeffries, rf. -----	5	2	1	1
Johnson, p. -----	1	1	0	2
Ragland, rf. -----	2	0	1	1
Houston -----	0	0	0	0
Mashaw, rf. -----	0	0	0	0
Totals -----	36	10	20	16
K. C.	AB.	H.	O.	A.
Portnondo, 3d. -----	4	0	1	2
Mendez, ss. -----	4	1	3	1
McNair, lf. -----	5	1	0	0
Carr, rf. -----	5	1	3	1
Donaldson, cf. -----	4	0	4	0
Washington, 1st. -----	5	2	1	0
Mothell, 2d. -----	5	1	3	4
Rodroquez, c. -----	3	0	5	1
Lightner, p. -----	0	0	0	0
Currie, p. -----	2	1	0	0
Totals -----	37	7	20	13
† Batted for Ragland in the eighth.
A. B. C.'s -----	0	1	2	0
Kansas City -----	2	0	2	0

Two-base hit—Washington. Three-base hit—Johnson. Sacrifice hits—DeWitt, Day, Houston, Portmondo, Lightner. Stolen bases—Clark 2, Charleston, Taylor, Portmondo, McNair. Bases on balls—Off Johnson, 3; off Jeffries, 1; off Lightner, 2; off Currie, 2. Hit by pitcher—By Jeffries, 1; by Currie, 3. Umpires—LeRoy and Huhn.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, May 29, 1920, Page 6, Column 5