

DISMUKES BEATS WILLIAMS IN PITCHING DUEL, 3 TO 1

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 31.—Dismukes and Stringbean Williams staged a pitching duel here today, with the advantage in favor of the Hoosier hurler, the A.s winning the contest, 3 to 1. The A.s bunched their nine hits in two sessions with men on the bases, while the local club could not connect safely when hits meant runs. Hadswet, pinch hitter for Jeffries, in the ninth with the bases full, and Redding pitching instead of Williams, singled over the shortstop's head driving in the winning run. The game was featured by the fielding of both clubs.

Score:

A.	B.	C.	3	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	2	—	3	0	2
Bach.	G.	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—	1	0	1

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, IN

Saturday, September 11, 1920, Page 7, Columns 1 and 2