

A. B. C.'S SCHEDULE

Birmingham, Ala., April 9.—Early training reports from Birmingham have Taylor's crew in the most strenuous preparatory work ever undergone by a team of our Race. The boys are out every morning by eight, hike to the park, trot around the enclosure several times, and then are taken through a grueling two hour baseball workout, egged on by the Hoosier leader. Then the gang foot it back to the hotel, grab the cats, dance under the shower, rest a bit and by 2 p. m. are ready for the game, recruits against the regulars. Many of the new ones are displaying real form, according to Taylor's version, and the prospects for a winning combination look exceedingly bright. The bookings of the A's in the Southland calls for games at New Orleans, Montgomery, Atlanta, Knoxville, Nashville, and Louisville, with the schedule at Birmingham. The Hoosiers open their home lot May 2 with Joe Green's Chicago Giants as opponents; then they launch out into a schedule of the new circuit that should serve as a serious test of the class of their baseball wares.

Proposed Schedule

At Indianapolis—Chicago Giants: May 2 (double header). Cuban Stars: May 9, 10, 11, 12. Kansas City Monarchs: May 16, 17, 18, 19. Dayton Marcos: May 23, 24.

Traveling

On the circuit—At Kansas City: May 29 (5 games). At Omaha, Neb.: June 5-6. At Chicago, Ill.: June 12 (double header). At Detroit, Mich.: June 19 (5 games).

The A's are doing quite a bit of traveling and playing an unusual number of double bills; so it looks as if Taylor will need nearly all the crew that he has in training in the South-

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, April 10, 1920, Page 11, Column 3