

Whitworth Meets Tesreau Sunday in Pitchers' Battle

New York, Aug. 27.—The attraction at Dyckman oval Sunday will be Edward Bolden's Hill-dales, who will attempt to take both ends of a twin bill from Jeff Tesreau and his small bears. In the opener Cockrell, who is about well from a sprained ankle, will oppose Godfrey, who recently pitched two shut-out games in one day. The nightcap will bring Whitworth and Savage, is considerably strengthened Tesreau together.

Jeff's team, according to Manager since they met the Smoke Town crew here a few weeks ago, and are out to win both games. Francis, Briggs, Downs, Santop, the Babe Ruth of semi-pro ball, and other stars will be in the visitors' line-up.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, August 28, 1920, Page 6, Column 4