

CUBANS VS. DETROIT STARS SERIES
Detroit, Mich., July 30.--The Detroit Stars won Monday's game from the Cuban Stars, lost Tuesday's 12 inning struggle and then proceeded to tuck Wednesday's game under their belt. In the first game Gatewood opposed both LeBlanc and Valdes, LeBlanc going to pieces in the fifth inning after Wesley touched him for a circuit drive. Gatewood tried to save Tuesday's game after the Islanders tied the count in the ninth frame, Holland being yanked by Blunt for a pinch hitter, but Hernandez, the opposing twirler, clogged for a homer, which spelled defeat for the home club. McDonald hurled the Stars to victory in the final games of the series, 7 to 3.
