
Naco Giants Win Championship

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 29.—The Naco Giants Baseball Club of this city, Geo. Simpson, manager, won the Colored championship of Cleveland by winning 21 and losing only 5 in the 26 games played here during the season. They defeated the Tate Stars for the title by their excellent showing. Manager Simpson says he expects to put up the strongest amateur club in the city next year.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, October 30, 1920, Page 6, Column 4