

UPLAND WALLOPED BY BROOKLYN GIANTS

Special to The Inquirer.

UPLAND, Pa., July 24.—Upland were shut out by the Brooklyn Royal Giants on the home grounds today before 3000 spectators, the Giants hitting the ball when hits counted. Douglass landed two homers and a three-base hit, while Lloyd had a home run to his credit. "Home Run" Baker could not find the ball for a single hit. Despite the one-sided score, the game was replete with brilliant plays on both sides.
