

CUBAN STARS TO PLAY AT GRIFF PARK TODAY

The Cuban Stars and the Brooklyn Royal Giants clash today at American League Park. During the season the Cubans have defeated practically every formidable semi-professional club in this country, with the exception of the Brooklyn Royal Giants and they are anxious to take the Brooklyn boys' scalps before returning to Havana. The Brooklyn Giants are usually as anxious of taking the series in order that their claim to the semi-professional championship will be undisputed.

The Washington Times, Washington, DC

Tuesday, September 21, 1920, Page 14, Column 7