

NATIVITY WILL PLAY TWILIGHT BASEBALL

Phil Haggerty's Team Opens Late Afternoon Season With Brooklyn Royal Giants

In spite of the lack of daylight saving in these parts, Manager Phil Haggerty, of the Nativity baseball club, will open the twilight season with the Brooklyn Royal Giants on May 26, at the home grounds, Belgrade and Ontario streets, Port Richmond, the home of Patsy Gorman et al.

But before the twilight season the Nativity team will not be idle. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock Haggerty's nine will clash with the Park Sparrows.

With Sox Seibold, formerly of the Athletics in the box, the Sparrows will have a strong bunch to buck Nativity.

Sunday Nativity plays Emerson at home and next Wednesday afternoon they will open the Germantown grounds with that club, following this game the next day with the Madison Stars at home.

Evening Public Ledger, Philadelphia, PA

Friday, May 14, 1920, Page 23, Column 1