

JUDGE'S ALL-STARS IN ANOTHER BATTLE TODAY

Joe Judge's All-Stars, which include Sam Rice, J. Franklin Baker, Brower, Frank Ellerbe and other Griffmen, play the Brooklyn Giants again today at the American League baseball park.

The All-Stars won by 2 to 1 yesterday, chiefly through the efforts of Frank Baker, who poled a double with Sam Rice on second in the opener. In the fourth Baker was scored with the winning run on Courtney's crash to right.

"Midget" Acosta allowed the Brooklyn Giants but four hits. Roberts, the colored heaver of the Giants, fanned twelve of Judge's batters.

The Washington Times, Washington, DC

Wednesday, October 6, 1920, Page 15, Column 6