

JUDGE'S ALL-STARS TO PLAY GIANTS TUESDAY

A baseball team under the leadership of Joe Judge, first sacker for the Nationals, will play a three or five game series at American League Park, starting tomorrow afternoon, against the Brooklyn Giants, who lately won the colored championship of the world. Judge has gotten together quite an array of talent, principally members of the Washington Club. J. Franklin Baker, who has not been seen on the baseball diamond here this season, has been coaxed away from the farm and will play third for the all-stars. Baker in his day was one of the greatest sluggers in baseball and has been playing on Saturdays this season in a league in the State of Delaware. Shawkey, star hurler for the New York Yankees, will be on the slab for the all-stars tomorrow afternoon.

The Washington Herald, Washington, DC

Monday, October 4, 1920, Page 9, Column 3